Alan Larkin Gallery Talk

6:30 p.m. Thursday, May 17
South Bend Museum of Art, in the Art League Gallery

Noted pastel artist Alan Larkin will talk about his current exhibit, Voyage: The Art of Alan Larkin, which includes work in pastels, oils and other media.

During a career spanning more than 40 years, former Indiana University South Bend professor, Alan Larkin, has won many prizes in regional, national and international competitions for his artwork, including the prestigious Founder's Award in the 2016 Pastel 100 Competition sponsored by the Pastel Journal and the Best of Show Award at the 75th and 91st annual Hoosier Salon Exhibition in Indianapolis. His works are in numerous private collections and the corporate collections of Pillsbury, NIPSCO, and Lincoln Life Insurance Companies. The exhibit continues to July 1. Call for Volunteers

Leeper Park Art Fair, June 16-17, needs information booth volunteers. Vital to the success of the fair, volunteers work 2-hour shifts, welcoming patrons and distributing information about the fair, as well as providing a booth sitting service to the artists.

Entering its 51st year, Leeper Park Art Fair, north of downtown South Bend in Leeper Park, is one of the nation's premier art events, ranked 30 in Sunshine Artists Magazine's "Top 200 Art Fairs." If you can help, contact Joan Spohrer, jfspohrer@ameritech.net.

Facebook

Please search Facebook for Northern Indiana Pastel Society and like the page. You can also share the posted info to your own page and note that you are a member of NIPS. Also remember to post a photo of your art when you participate in shows and invite your friends to visit the show. This effort helps us get the word out about our art.

Need a critique?

ProArtCritique is a website where paintings and drawings can be constructively critiqued by a professional artist for a fee. If you are interested in a critique, technical help, advice, or would like to connect with a future workshop instructor, see proartcritique.com. Several noted pastel artists are on the list to give critiques.

Garden artists wanted

Artists are invited to participate in the 29th annual Arts in Bloom Garden Walk to benefit South Bend Museum of Art, 9:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Wednesday July 11 in the River Commons and Fernwood neighborhoods, north of downtown South Bend.

Hosted by the Art League, patrons buy tickets to view the gardens and meet artists as they paint. Featured artists are needed for shifts lasting all day or portions of the day. Friends who wish to paint together can be assigned to the same garden. Artist names, medium and contact info will be listed in the souvenir booklet. To be a garden artist, contact Cathy McCormick camccorm@aol.com

Artists are invited to create works that range from house portraits and views of the lawns, flower gardens and trees to details of flowers, yard ornaments and plants. Sometimes the homeowners purchase the works.

Another sales opportunity is new this year: the boutique at the hospitality center, Christ the King Catholic Church. Garden themed items will be for sale. Artists who paint in the gardens are encouraged to submit small originals, prints and cards for sale. A commission of 25 percent goes to the museum. Artwork can be donated to the boutique also. More info: Betty Gallagher, gallagherbj@yahoo.com.

Arts in Bloom is the major fund raiser the Art League conducts for South Bend Museum of Art.
